A FEW WORDS FROM YOUR PRESIDENT...

Welcome to the 18th consecutive Annual C4 Convention in Baltimore. You have made it and prepare yourself for a wonderful time! We have scheduled events, meetings and exhibits at the C4 Club Table. Please refer to Whitman Program for our exact table location.

Dealers have traveled from across the country to hopefully place some new material in your collections, answer questions and possibly purchase some of your duplicate coins. I personally want to thank them for the time and expense that they endured and I truly hope that this convention is as profitable for them as it is fun for us to go home with new treasures!

C4 events will be held in the Camden Room at the Sheraton Inner Harbor Hotel on Thursday night (Social and Educational Program) beginning at 6pm and in room 301 in the Convention Center for the business Meeting Saturday morning at 8:30. Also, Colonial Lectures will be held during the day throughout the convention in Room 301; please see the schedule in our program as well as the Whitman Program for confirmation of these locations and times. Our co-sponsored auction with Stack's Bowers is going to be one of the best, if not the very best auction we have ever had in our 18 years of auctions, with hundreds of lots with some material that has been off the market for over a century. The work that has been done behind the scenes in preparation of this convention has been monumental and I truly hope that you all have as much fun and excitement at this convention as we the Board had in planning it.

As this is our first year in Baltimore, I am sure that there are going to be some glitches that we have not been able to anticipate. I ask you to be as understanding and patient as possible. We, the Board, have done our best to limit these issues but I am sure that some issues are going to happen and I apologize in advance for them.

So please come prepared for the time of your life. This show, for those who have only been to Boston, is a show with ~1000 dealers versus 80 in Boston. The difference in these two shows is astronomical. So if there are any questions or concerns, please stop by the C4 table, talk to board members, get to know us and don't hesitate to ask your questions or give us your comments. I appreciate your confidence in our Board.

James Rosen

AMERICAN NUMISMATIC SOCIETY

The Colonial Newsletter, Oliver Hoover, Editor

The Colonial Newsletter (CNL) is a research journal dedicated to the study of early American numismatics. Founded in 1960, CNL has continuously published some of the most scholarly and seminal studies in this area of numismatics. Focusing on the study of the coinages produced by the states during the Confederation period of the United States, CNL also investigates a variety of other specie that our forefathers used in their daily lives. Anyone with an interest in early America and its struggle to establish a new nation will find something of value in this publication. CNL is published three times a year in April, August, and December.

C4's Focus and Purpose

The Colonial Coin Collectors Club (C4) was founded in 1993 to provide a forum for collectors of numismatic material related to the Early American era. This involves coins, tokens, currency, and medals. The exact time frame encompassed by colonial numismatics is open to debate, but is generally accepted to include the complete pre-federal period as well as some issues of the 1790's. The early George Washington coins, tokens and medals are considered colonial items by most, and some of these date to the first half of the nineteenth century.

The club provides a forum for people interested in this period. The aims of the club are:

- 1- To increase the public's knowledge about colonial numismatics through meetings, conventions and its newsletter.
- 2- To promote the study of colonial numismatics and to help disseminate this information.
- 3- To cultivate fraternal collector relations.

For these purposes, the club will hold several meetings during the year in conjunction with major numismatic shows. The club has also established a colonial reference library and a colonial coin photo file. In addition, the C4 Newsletter is published quarterly.
